PRESIDENT CLEVELAND DEFINES PROPER CAMPAIGN WORK.

Official Buty Must be Paramount to Partisan Service.

The Order Suspending District Attorney Benton, of Missouri, Rescinded.

Washington, Nov. 17.—M. E. Benton, who was suspended from the position of United States district attorney in Missouri by President Cleveland for making political speeches, has written a long letter to the President explain-ing that these speeches did not inter-fere with his official duties. The following is President Cleveland's answer EXECUTIVE MANSION,) November 16.

Hon. M. E. Benton: DEAR SIR:-Your letter of the 10th inst, addressed to the Attorney General has been submitted to me and carefully considered. Its frank tone and all I know of your character convinces me of the truth therein related, touching matters which led to your suspension from office. When I issued a warning to officeholders, to which you refer to as an "order," I expected to be much harrassed by all manner of loose and frivolous tales originating in malice or disappointment out the part malice or disappointment on the part of political enemies to annoy and embarass appointees under the present administration. I hoped, however, by the careful consideration of the spirit as well as language of such warning, those in good faith intending to respect it might not be in doubt as to its mean-ing and would themselves apply it to conditions and circumstances which it was impossible for me to specify.

I did not intend to condemn the making of a political speech to his neighbors and friends, nor at any time or place where it was merely incidental, if the speech itself was decent and fair. But I do not think such official can enter as a business a political campaign and consenting to a long list of engagements address political meetings, wide-ly separated and of daily recurrence, and fill such engagements without neg-lecting his duty if he holds an office

GROVER CLEVELAND,) EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 17. Hon. A. H. Garland :

SIR:—Having fully examined and considered the statements contained in the letter of Maecenas Benton, which you submitted to me at the time of our consultation concerning the matter therein referred to, I have determined to rescind the order suspending Benton from the office of attorney of the United States for the western district of Missouri, and direct he be notified of his reinstatement to that office.

Very respectfully yours, GROVER CLEVELAND.

The Dangers of Kissing.

"If I was a woman and could see the faults of my fellows as well as the average observant man can I'd form a society for the abolition of kissing. got to come to that, anyway, within the next ten years. All that keeps it alive is its qualities as a foil for the genuine article." So a very worldly and very bright little woman told me, in a burst of frankness, a few hours ago. Said she: "If women didn't kiss so automatically and insincerely they wouldn't know what the beauty of the real kiss was." And I guess she was right. Apemantus, my old friend of medical proclivities and cynical instincts, growled when I asked him what he thought of it, and said: "An elegant disseminof it, and said: "An elegant disseminator of disease. Fever is spread by it, so are lung troubles, and such physical scythes as diptheria, etc. I'd drive kissing out of the land and save onetenth of I per cent of human lives every year-if life saving is the end and aim of science, which you know I doubt."-Toronto Globe.

An Arkansas justice of the peace, who had just married a couple, turned to a man and said. "I don't believe that the woman will love, serve, and obey him." "I don't know," some one re-plied, "she seems to be a very amiable woman." "I don't think she is." the justice replied. "Why so?" she used to be my wife." "Because

Why the Wemen Are Pleased.

The women of the United States seem especially gratified at the compliment paid their sex by the superintendent of the bureau of engraving and printing in selecting the vignoste of Martha Washington to adorn the new $1 silver certificates. Mr. Graves has received a large number of congratulatory letters from the friends of the women's move-ment all over the country; but the present superintendent deserves only the credit of selection, for, as a matter of fact, neither the vignette of Martha Washington nor that of Gen. Grant, which is on the $5 notes, has been engraved expressly for this purpose. They were chosen during the administration of Casilear in the bureau of printing and engraving, and have been waiting for years to be used .- Washington Letter.

Originated in a Kneipe. During the same year I spent a few days in Bonn, Germany. In a "kneipe" I noticed in the centre of the table a thick cord, the same as you find in some of the old restaurants for call bells. To the cord was fasiened a fox's tail, and whenever any one told a dry story or related an exploit that seemed doubt ful there was a call for "Fox," and a junior student, who acted as waiter, or fag, as the English call it, pulled the fox's tail and rang a bell. I was told this custom had existed for fully 200 years. Now if that doesn't explain the origin of the chestnut bell call me stupid. - Philadelphia

LAY AND COL ZOHN HAY.

This great work, begun with the savellon of Free-ident Lincoln, and continued under the authority of bis son, the Hon. Robert T. Lincoln, is the only full and authorities record of the life of Abraham Lincoln. Its authors were friends of Lincoln before his presidency; they were most intimately associated with him as private sericated attrophed his term of office, and to them were transferred mon Lincoln's death all his private papers. Here will be told the inside history of the dvit war and of President Lincoln's administration—important details of which have hitherto remained unrevealed, that they might first appear, in this authentic history. By reason of the pulliflation of this work.

THE WAR SERIES, DAY AND COL JOHN HAY.

THE WAR SERIES, which has been followed with unflagging interest by a great andlence, will occupy less apace during the coming year. Getrysburg will be described by Gen. Hunt (Chief of the Union Artillery.) Gen. Long-street, Gen. E. M. Law, and others: Chickamnga, by Gen. H. H. Hill; Sheeman's March to the Sea, by Generals Howard and Slocun. Generals Q. A. Glimore, Wm. F. Smith. John Gibbon. Horace Porter, and John S. Mosby will describe special battles and incidents. Stories of naval angagements, prison life, etc., etc., will appear.

NOVELS AND. STORIES.

NOVELS AND STORIES. "The Hundredth Man," a novel by Frank R. Stockton, author of "The Lady, or the Tigert" etc., begins it November. Two novelettes by Geo. W. Cable, stories by Mary Hallock Foots, "Uncle Remus," Julian Hawthorne, Edward Eggleston, and other prominent American authors will be printed during the rear.
